Seminar by Andrey Ustyuzhanin (Yandex) delivered within CERN premises today ^[1]

Wednesday, 7 August, 2013

Andrey Ustyuzhanin from Yandex delivered a seminar on Reproducibility today. He covered the problem of embedding machine learning techniques into analysis strategy, and spoke about the most common pitfalls in this process and how to avoid them. He also demonstrated the research environment based on the principles that he outlined.

The video of the talk and the presentation are available at the event's Indico page. ^[2]

Yandex has joined CERN openlab as an associate sponsor in January 2013. More details are available here ^[3].
