Seminar: Writing parallel programs that work

08/06/2012 - 14:00 to 15:00

As glaring as it may sound, serial algorithms are one of the main burdens to achieve efficient parallel computations. Therefore a good understanding of the serial parts in a given piece of code sets the basis for performant parallel programming.

Minor Review Meeting

12/06/2012 - 14:00 to 17:00

On a monthly basis, two presentations are given at the Minor Review Meeting, to update the teams on various projects.
